

The establishment of this Council will only be a good thing if it truly represents the end users, and not the vested interests. With this in mind I believe it should be part of the charter that of the members/committee, there should be permanent places for at least one member to come from National Seniors Australia and one from Choice, a truly independent body. Depending on the size of the committee membership from these bodies should be 1 or 2 each.