

Regional banking taskforce

Hello there ; This is a no brainer, we need bank services in the regions and the postal bank would be perfect because they are already in most towns through out the country. A postal bank would make all other banks pull their sock up because they would loose a millions of customers who at present have no other choice but travel long distances .so please recommend to government we need a proper postal bank

Regards Kim Rees